NEW NOMINEES

Dr David Minns (Chiropractor) graduated from Royal Melbourne Institute of Technology at the end of 1985. After a brief locum in Melbourne he came to Western Australia at the beginning of 1986 to practice in Mandurah and is the owner and principal of Manduarh Chiropractic.. Dr Minns has been a WA Director and held positions of Secretary (1987-1990) and , President (1992-95) . He has also been a director on the ASRF Board (2001-2009) and Treasurer (2002-2009). He wishes to become a Director to provide guidance and work ethics required to achieve successful outcomes for the members of the CAAWA. .

Dr Conor Sexton (Chiropractor) graduated from RMIT in 2008 with distinction and after one year working as an associate in Melbourne moved to Perth. He is the owner of Mindarie Chiropractic. He would like to join the WA Board to support its role in ensuring the Chiropractic profession is able to serve the Australian community to its full capacity. As an associate and principal of his own clinic he brings experience and understanding of being part of a team.

Dr Matthew Coxall (Chiropractor) graduated from Murdoch University in 2014 and has worked at Cockburn Central Chiropractic and Duncraig Chiropractic. He has a strong belief in the CAA and CAA-WA as the main body representing the profession and direction CAA needs to take in future. He has undertaken governance training with AICD as part of the CAAWA Director training program and was a nominee in the 2016 WA Director elections. Dr Coxall is happy to accept responsibility as an active board member should he be elected for the next two years.

RE-NOMINEES

Dr Simon Crichton (Chiropractor) graduated from Murdoch University in the first cohort of graduates in 2006 and is currently working for Falcon Chiropractic. Dr Crichton has undertaken governance training with AICD as part of the Director training program and is continuing his professional development with Animal Chiropractic. He has served two terms as a WA Director on the Board from 2013-2017. Dr Crichton was the CAAWA representative to Murdoch University in his last year 12 months.

Dr Lyndon Woods (Chiropractor) has been in practice over 35 years and filled various roles within the profession and CAA. He is a senior supervising clinician at Murdoch University and still in private practice. Dr Woods has been a CAAWA Board from 2012 as a Director and recently as Vice President. He has published nearly 20 papers in peer-reviewed literature along with two books chapters and made numerous submissions to government agencies. He is currently on a steering committee member of the CAA funded ACORN PBRN and his passion is that protecting and expanding your professional rights, scope and roles as chiropractors. Chiropractic is not something he does but who he is.

Dr Warren Genders (Chiropractor) graduated from Macquarie University in 2000 winning numerous graduate awards. He owns his own practice Belridge Chiropractic and has been in WA for over 16 years. Dr Genders has been involved in the administration of the WA CAA branch for the last 13 years and is committed to supporting the CAA's efforts to develop the chiropractic profession. He has been a WA Director and held the position of Treasurer and recently the President. He is strongly committed to completing the unification process that started with the CAA 3 years ago. Dr Genders recently completed his GAICD and is a Director on the CAA National Board and other special interest groups.
